

Please don't allow this to happen. Just another attempt to take away our rights and give more profits to the corporations...in this case the telephone companies. The public at large includes students of working families that will be unable to pay more to connect to the internet and therefore their studies will once again suffer. Most schools have assignments that students must download among other things. Education has already taken a big hit in the most marginal communities. Don't make this another one.